

Female Business Owner Forum

Please join us for a discussion on Erasing the Funding Gap

Today, 34% of the world's wealth is held by women. More than ever, women want to use their wealth and entrepreneurial skills to have a positive impact on society, and in doing so, support other women in business. Yet, female business owners, globally, receive less funding than their male counterparts. Why? What's behind the discrepancy?

Please join our Female Business Owner Forum discussion and gain expertise on what actions can be taken to close the gap between investors and women business owners and entrepreneurs.

Our distinguished panel will provide advice for female founders as they build, grow and consider sales options for their businesses as well as insights on how small and middle market business can best position themselves in the evolving M&A market.
